District/Area Officer Candidate Campaign Rules Prior to District Convention

* Mail outs or publicity by any person or entity mentioning candidacy outside of a candidate's home area prior to the convention is not permitted. Any media, electronic or hard copy which solicits support for or promotes a candidacy is prohibited by this policy.

* Candidates may not create any new, or utilize any pre-existing, groups, fan pages, networks or any other form of mass communication through social networking sites such as, but not limited to, Facebook, MySpace, Twitter, blogs or mass email services to promote their candidacy or have someone else conduct this form of campaigning on their behalf. Candidates may not, or knowingly have someone else, post status updates on Twitter, Facebook, MySpace, SnapChat, Instagram or any other social networking site that may be deemed as a solicitation for votes. During the election process, members will be directed not to post anything campaign-related to the web.

* Business cards may only bear the candidates name, address, phone number and e-mail address and only indicate that the candidate is an "officer candidate" from his or her respective school.

*Violation of any campaign rule may result in the disqualification of a candidate from the District / Area officer election at the Ricebelt District Convention.

I,_____, have read the campaign rules for the Ricebelt District and promise to abide by them. If any of the rules are proven broken I will relinquish my spot as a District/ Area officer candidate.
